Mr. Carlisle P. Range
Assistant Secretary of Defense
(Manpower)
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Range:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to study and reply to your letter of 23 February 1961 relative to the developing of a coordinated United States Government position on the J7 formal alert measures embraced by the MAGLANT Alert System Plan, Ser: C-1193, dated 31 October 1960.

Accordingly, we have reviewed the U. S. Category Classification in your Inclosure 1, drafted by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and we concur in the proposed United States position as reflected therein.

We have reviewed the Draft Compilation Chart (your Inclosure 2) and have indicated those measures which we feel are of significance to this Agency and have designated the degree thereof by the coding system at the top of the first page of the chart. We are returning the two inclosures under separate cover.

Sincerely yours,

15/
